Private Jet Services Group is now offering a complimentary Airlift Contingency Program that can deliver last-minute worldwide air solutions in the event of an emergency. This new PJS program provides travel agents, meeting, and incentive planners with pre-packaged airlift options to execute on short notice should circumstances arise for their clients such as natural disasters, political unrest, strikes, or commercial airline interruptions. The PJS Airlift Contingency Program delivers rapid response flights 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. To enroll, travel agents and planners provide PJS with basic information on upcoming trips including travel dates, destinations, and passenger counts. At no cost, multiple contingency programs detailing available aircraft options will be presented. PJS and the travel agent/planner will have a stand-by agreement on file ready to execute when required. This contingency program is complimentary to input and costs will only apply when airlift is actually engaged. (SY)
