Private Jet Services Group Contributes Air Transportation for Special Olympics Athletes to the 2006 National Games

(Hampton, NH) – Private Jet Services Group contributes air transportation for athletes from the Maine and Massachusetts Special Olympics chapters to attend the first ever USA National Games on July 1, 2006. PJS will transport 173 passengers consisting of athletes, coaches, and delegates to Ames, Iowa for this competition, July 2nd – 7th.

“The Special Olympics is an incredible organization and we are proud to contribute air transportation to the 2006 USA National Games,” says Greg Raiff, President and CEO of Private Jet Services Group.

“The Special Olympics National Games are an excellent display of how Massachusetts and Maine athletes are changing the world by demonstrating their amazing abilities and showing others what individuals with disabilities are capable of achieving,” says Special Olympics Massachusetts’ President and CEO, Robert Johnson. “Special Olympics MA and ME appreciates the support PJS has contributed to allow these athletes the opportunity to participate in the first ever National Games competition.”
